Rock Song "Mud Bunny" Released by Whoa Tunes

Do What You Love, Write What You Know

Kristina Powell, creator of Whoa Tunes, is pumped for the release of her first hard-hitting rock tune, "Mud Bunny", which drops on February 25, 2021.

What's interesting about Kristina is that her first few decades were spent in the health and fitness industry, not music.

She jokes that getting a thump on the noggin in martial arts, or while riding her quad, turned on her lyrical mind.

As a big fan of offroad ATVing, Kristina decided to write about her passion.

The song "Mud Bunny" is neither deep nor dreary...instead it's catchy, fun and an easy sing-along meant to put the listener in a kick-butt mood!

It takes a look at the challenges of pushing yourself, and the highs we all get from having fun outdoors...common themes today.
